

OTT-EULBERG

EULBERG

ERBRECHTSKANZLEI

POWER OF ATTORNEY

The Attorneys at Law

are hereby granted full power of attorney regarding the following matters:

1. to conduct litigation (acc. to §§ 81 et seq. ZPO) including the authority to file and withdraw counterclaims;

2. to file a divorce petition and a petition regarding ancillary consequential matters of a divorce, to conclude settlement of legal consequences of divorce, as well as to apply for information regarding pensions and other forms of provision or support;

3. to represent and defend in criminal cases and summary offences (§§ 302, 374 StPO) including preliminary proceedings and to represent (in case of absence) according to § 411 II StPO, when specifically authorized, also according to §§ 233 I, 234 StOP. Further, to receive summons according to § 145 a II StPO when specifically authorized, to initiate prosecution and to file other petitions that are permitted under the Code of Criminal Procedure; also to file petitions in accordance with the law governing compensation for prosecution, in particular as regards separate proceedings concerning the amount of a claim.

4. to represent in other proceedings and in all kinds of extrajudicial settlement (particularly in matters arising from accidents to assert claims against the damaging party, the registered users of motor vehicles and their insurers).

This power of attorney applies to all levels of the proceedings and covers also all collateral and ancillary proceedings (e.g. seizure and preliminary injunction, proceedings concerning the determination of costs, execution proceedings, intervention compulsory auction ordered by the court, sequestration, as well as deposit proceedings, bankruptcy and arrangement proceedings concerning the opponent's property). It comprises in particular authorization to act unilaterally (i.e. the external manifestation of intent), and to receive such declarations of intent (e.g. notices of termination); further to effect and accept service, to delegate power of attorney, either completely or partially (substitute power of attorney), to file or withdraw an appeal, or to waive the right to appeal, to terminate the lawsuit or extrajudicial negotiations by settlement, renunciation or acknowledgement, to receive money, valuables and documents, in particular the object at issue and the costs to be reimbursed by the adversary, the court cashier or third parties or the inspect files.

The place of performance and the legal venue for all claims arising from the legal relationship on which the Power of Attorney is based, is the location of the office of the Attorneys at Law/Patent Attorneys.

This Power of Attorney also applies to a representative (trustee, liquidator) of the office of the Attorneys at Law/Patent Attorneys unless revoked.

.....
Place, Date

.....
Signature

(First names and surnames of individuals are to be written in full; corporate bodies shall sign in the form in which they are registered. No legalization required.)